

World Book Day - Thursday 4th March 2021

We love books!

Reading is the best gift that we can be given!

It opens new worlds and possibilities to us all.

On Thursday 4th March 2021 it is 'World Book Day'. Like last year, it will be a bit different due to lockdown but you can still get involved and have fun!

You and your grown-up can find out more about what World Book Day is all about here.

The newsletter that was sent out on Friday has a £1 e-voucher that you can use towards purchasing your own book. Adding even more reading materials to your home library! Find your e-voucher on Friday's email or on your class' discussion. Here are this year's £1 book choices.

You can listen to celebrity 'live reads' from Wednesday 3rd March. Use the link here to join a live read on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

There are lots of free audio books that you can listen to using this link.

Not sure what to read next? Take a look at these recommendations.

Early Years and Key Stage 1

Enjoy listening to and looking at stories together. Use this link to enjoy 10 minute stories and do some fun activities.

Competition time!

Fancy taking part in some World Book Day competitions? Click here.