

Partnership of Bentley and Copdock Primary Schools

Governing Board and Committee Structure
September 2024

Our Vision

The governing Board of Bentley CEVC and Copdock Primary Schools share a vision for the children of our schools...

to become 'confident individuals, successful learners and responsible citizens who are well equipped for future life, whatever that may hold'
*knowing that God is with us always (Matthew 28:20)

Within our partnership, the Governing Board aims to develop and enhance our provision by:

Identifying the strength and characteristics of our schools, sharing and developing good practice from which we may all learn and looking to support further developments and opportunities for those within our school communities.

Exploring how to maintain and develop the ethos within our schools ensuring the focus is based on the spiritual and personal wellbeing of the pupils and all those who contribute to the learning that takes place.

Identifying areas of the curriculum that could be developed and engage in joint curriculum work.

Identifying opportunities to exchange and share good work practices to ensure quality learning opportunities for the children.

Building on existing provisions within each school whilst developing the partnership between both schools for the educational future of the pupils and their families, the professional development of staff and to ensure inclusion and commitment of the local community.

Working together in order to support and share issues and circumstances that will enable staff at all levels to develop and apply their professional skills and expertise.

Meetings

Full Governing Board Meetings

These should not be extended meetings but enable governors to share the work of the committees and discuss the headteacher's report, enabling all governors to maintain an overview of the schools' progress. There should also be the opportunity to discuss the vision and future development of the partnership.

Key items for discussion should include:

Headteacher's Report: This is an important focus of the full Governing Board meeting. Following the model already developed, it should enable all governors to maintain an overview of both the quality of teaching and the quality of learning in the school and will form the main discussion of the meeting. Achievement and celebration should also be shared.

Schools/Partnership Development Plan: Progress of the Partnership Development Plan can be monitored.

Committee Reports Each committee should give a brief report of progress. (The minutes will be available to all on the school websites.)

County issues: Discussion of those issues not delegated to committees.

Governor visits: Receive an update on visits and monitoring undertaken by governors. (A full report will be available on the website)

Questionnaires

In order to evaluate aspects of the school and highlight strengths and weaknesses, annual questionnaires for pupils, parents and staff are conducted. A separate governors' questionnaire can also give the chance for the self-evaluation to be monitored. Considerable time in collation and analysis can be achieved by conducting these electronically.

Governor Induction/Training

To help new governors settle into the structure, an induction pack explaining the two schools, the partnership and the Governing Board structure has been produced. All new governors are urged to complete the "How Do I Start?" training. A "buddy/mentor" system is also used as a helpful way of settling into a larger structure. Regular training for individual governors and as a whole governing will be planned as appropriate.

Committees

To improve delegation and reduce individual commitment, the committee structure is essential. The committees are co-ordinated and responsibilities timetabled throughout the year. Apart from chairs, governors should not be expected to sit on more than one standing committee. This structure should ensure:

- Delegation of issues to appropriate committees.
- A reduction in duplication of discussions, particularly repeating those held in committee, at full governors' meetings.
- Discussions of issues become easier in smaller groups.
- Governors are able to specialise and develop expertise in an area of school governance.
- All aspects of the governors' responsibilities are scheduled to be considered each year.

Chairing and clerking meetings

Governing Board and committee meetings will be hosted by alternate partner schools each half term. Whole Governing Board meetings will be clerked independently by a Local Authority clerk.

All minutes will be available on Governorhub.

Other committees will meet as required.
