

The Nothing To See Here Hotel

Steven Lenton and Steven Butler
To the end of Page 13

Quick Start

- What type of creature is Granny?
- What is the name of the narrator?
- What was his Grandad called?

Vocabulary Check

- sweet or short dumplings of fun
- slobbering as she did so
- right out at the far end of the seafront
- searching for weird and exotic things
- Regurgita Glump

Partnered Talk

Why do you think the author talks about the big bad wolf when introducing Granny?

Individual Thinking

How does the author want the reader to feel about Granny? How do you know? What words does he use?

Individual Thinking

‘You’re probably thinking that I’ve had my brains scrambled or I’m loop de loop crazy’

Why might Frankie expect the reader to think he’s crazy?

Partnered Talk

Look at Page 13.

Why does the author put some of the words in capital letters?

Solo Work

A big, mean troll that can eat people should be scary, but this story does not seem scary.

Why do you think it doesn't seem scary?