

Social and Moral Dilemmas

Read each scenario and decide what you would do for each and why.

Scenario	What would you do and why?
You are in a shop at the weekend and see a friend from school take some sweets and put them in their bag without paying for them.
Someone in your class tells you about some bullying behaviour. They say that one of your closest friends is responsible.
You are good friends with your neighbours. You see an unknown person looking over the fence into the garden of the house next door.
You are the captain of the football team. You have to choose between two players for an important match on Saturday. One always comes to training and is an average player. The other one is an excellent goal scorer and very fast but often misses training.
You have been saving up for your mum's birthday present. You want to buy her something special as it will be her 40th. Your friend asks if you want to go to a theme park in the holidays. You do not have enough money to do both.
Your next-door neighbours are out at work all day. Sometimes you hear their dog whining in the garage. You are worried about the dog but your dad says it's none of our business.
