

Why do Jewish people talk about repentance at New Year?

Beginning: Discusses concept in own life	Q1 Is repentance just saying sorry?
Developing: Draws on the lesson material	Q2 What does the shofar remind Jewish people to do?
Expected: Applies concept/answers key question	Q3 Why do Jewish families talk about repentance at New Year?
Greater Depth: Offers wider links to this or other faiths / personal views	Q4 What rules would you make for helping children put things right in school when there is a fight?

Strand c) forms of expression Rc I can recognise a shofar and that the word 'God' is important to a Jewish person <hr/> 1c I can suggest why the symbol of weighing scales is important to a Jewish person at New Year <hr/> 2c I can say what the sound of the shofar or tasting honey means for Jewish people at Rosh Hashanah <hr/> 3c I can describe some ways Jewish people show beliefs about God and repentance at Yom Kippur, using religious terms correctly	Strand f) values and commitments Rf I can talk about trying to put something right when I do wrong <hr/> 1f I can talk about what is important to me about saying sorry and being forgiven, and why <hr/> 2f I can talk about what is important to others, including Jewish people, about repentance and 'putting things right', asking respectfully why <hr/> 3f I can link my ideas about repentance and forgiveness with the way I think and behave, or would like to think and behave
---	---