UKS2 How does the Triple Refuge help Buddhists in their journey through life?

Prior learning

Following the Buddha's teachings (the eightfold path) allows every human to achieve enlightenment and end suffering.

What should we know?

The triple refuge support Buddhists on their journey to enlightenment

Buddhist's believe:

- Buddha is the guide. They revere but do not worship Buddha; they take 'refuge' in him as their guide towards enlightenment.
- Dharma is the path (the teaching). It shows Buddhists the way to travel to reach enlightenment. It is a safe, well laid path which they can follow for themselves.
- Dharma includes rules for right living and teaching on how to avoid bad actions.
- Sangha are the travelling companions, the Buddhist community.
- The Five precepts help you to live ethically and morally good lives.

What should we be able to do?

Show how Buddhists express their belief that the Buddha is a refuge and guide.

Explain how the Buddha's teachings (dharma) help Buddhists journey along the path.

Use the right religious words to describe the practices and experiences of Buddhists belonging to the Sangha, both lay and monastic.
