

Long Multiplication Reasoning

| | |
|---|---|
| Question 1: Last year, 93 people each raised £5496 for charity. How much money was raised in total? | Question 2: Box A holds 7233 bananas and Box B holds 5324 apples. If there are 47 Box As and 67 Box Bs, how many items of fruit are there altogether? |
| Question 3: Each cake weighs 2957 grams. What would be the total weight of 43 cakes? | Question 4: It costs a company 98p to manufacture a pencil case. How much would it cost to manufacture 8475 pencil cases? |
| Question 5: An online store sells computer games for £36 each. If the online store sells 8589 games in a year, how much money has the store received? | Question 6: Rhiad says the difference between the highest answer and the lowest answer is 90 304. Is she correct? 9685×38 3284×87 4987×76 |
| Question 7: An episode of a popular children's television programme lasts 27 minutes. If there are 48 episodes in one season and there are 37 seasons, how many minutes of the TV programme are there altogether? | Question 8: Alicia says, 'If you multiply 1485 by 8 and then multiply the answer by 78, the answer is 946 640. Is she correct? Explain your answer.' |