

Section A 1.2 To begin to understand what makes up their identity

Remember what you have learned about Grace as a person - she looks about 7, she is a girl, she is black, she has a Mother and a Grandmother, she goes to school, she likes play acting, she loves stories. These are examples that make up someone's identity.

Now share things about your identity in the frames.