35 row. At 82 years of age, Granny Mildred had never been on an 46 aeroplane before and, so far, she wasn't really enjoying her first
50 experience of air travel.

60 "It'll be fine," her grandson George reassured her, showing Granny
65 how to fasten her seatbelt.

76 "These seatbelts are nothing like the ones in a car," commented
84 Granny. "They can't possibly be safe!" she protested.

96 Just then, a smartly dressed lady appeared with a china cup in 110 her hand. "I think I've got just the trick," she said to George with 121 a smile, as she handed Mildred a lovely cup of tea.

133 "This is much better!" said Granny Mildred, settling in for the long 135 flight ahead.
