

Underground riddles

London's underground rail system opened in 1863. These riddles relate to the station names. Can you solve them?

Riddle 1

I'm on the (green) District Line.
 I'm to the east of Tower Hill.
 My name sounds like the noise that dogs make.
 Where am I?

.....

Riddle 2

I'm on the (black) Northern Line.
 I'm between Camden Town and Edgware.
 My name sounds like a tree that has been set on fire.
 Where am I?

.....

Riddle 3

I'm near the middle of the (red) Central Line.
 My name sounds like a good place to save money.
 Where am I?

.....

Challenge: Can you create your own riddle about one of the London Underground stations?