

Look at the illustration.

Where do you think this is?
What can you see?

Unit 1: English

What do you notice about the buildings?

How are they different to the buildings from today?

© Focus Education UK Ltd.

Complete the table below to compare houses from today to houses from 1666.

Houses from 1666	Houses of today

Go for a walk and look carefully at the houses near where you live. What do you notice about the houses today? Think about what they are made from, are they all built very close together or are there spaces between them? What are the roofs made from?